To qualify for a cancellation free of charge on the grounds of extenuating circumstances, candidates must supply reasonable extenuating circumstances alongside proof/notice of absence from work, by email, to the IPA. This must be validated by the candidate's HR/manager by email. No calls will be accepted. Any requests made due to annual leave or work commitments known or not known at the point of booking will not be accepted as reasonable reason for cancellation at no charge under any circumstances.

2. Qualification Examination

2.1 Examination Date

The exam date is selected at the point of booking.

There is a minimum number of 10 candidates required to run an online exam. If there are not enough candidates registered for an exam date, the IPA may cancel and reschedule the exam at their discretion.

Candidates that do have an examination cancelled by the IPA for this reason, or any other (i.e. technical difficulties) will be offered an alternative examination date at no charge.

2.2 Examination Location

This is an online exam.

It is the candidate and their organisation's responsibility to organise a suitable place to sit the exam. Somewhere quiet, where the candidate will not be disturbed and with strong internet connection.

2.3 Examination Conditions

By proceeding with the examination, candidates understand and agree to sit the exam under an honest code of conduct as outlined by the IPA in the Examination Honour Code. Should they engage in any activity that could result in gaining an unfair advantage, before, during or after the exam they understand that they risk disqualification.

The candidate and their agency/company accept all responsibility for fulfilling the IPA Examination Honour Code. If any candidate fails their paper due to disqualification, the IPA and/or the Sales Representative will not reimburse the candidate/agency/company for any payments made for the qualification.

2.4 Examination Invigilation

Though not mandatory for an online exam, organising an invigilator is encouraged. Any candidate suspected of engaging in any activity that could result in gaining an unfair advantage, before, during or after the exam risks disqualification.

It is the candidate/organisation's responsibility to organise an invigilator. Should an invigilator be organised, the candidate/organisation should complete and return the relevant form available in the learning portal to the Support Contact at least 2-weeks before the exam date.

2.5 Examination Honour Code

All candidates must agree to the Examination Honour Code at the beginning of their online exam.

- I will not give or receive unauthorised assistance, or engage in any activity that could result in gaining an unfair advantage, before, during or after the exam.
- I will not refer to any notes, learning or printouts during the exam, as this is a closed book exam.
- I will not confer with any other candidate for information regarding mine, or their, exam answers during the exam.
- Should I engage in any activity that could result in gaining an unfair advantage, before, during or after the exam I understand that I risk disqualification.

2.6 Access Arrangements, Reasonable Adjustments and Any Other Special Requirements

The IPA believes in accommodating the needs of all its learners. If access and adjustments for candidates with specific needs, disabilities, and special educational needs are required, the IPA will do our best to accommodate these.

Candidates with dyslexia or dyspraxia are entitled to 25% extra time in the examination, unless a different amount of additional time is stipulated in any supporting paperwork.

Any request for access arrangements, reasonable adjustments and any other special requirements including extra time must be submitted to the IPA at least 4-weeks before the exam date through the relevant online form.

Access arrangements, reasonable adjustments and any other special requirements will only be considered when requested with supporting paperwork. For example, a report from a doctor or educational institution confirming the candidate's requirements. Any supporting paperwork shared with the IPA will be deleted/shredded following the candidate's examination. For information on how we treat your personal data, please see our privacy policy.

2.6.1 Request Form

2.6.2 Language Differences

Extra time requests due to language differences do not extend to non-native English speakers sitting the exam in an English speaking country. Only non-native English speakers sitting the exam in a non-English speaking country are entitled to extra time in the exam; this 50% extra time is allocated automatically at the point of booking.

Non-native English speakers are permitted to use a translation dictionary during the exam. This dictionary must be approved by the IPA prior to the exam date.

2.7 Examination Deferral

A candidate can defer their Foundation Certificate examination at no cost up to the booking deadline.

Any deferral requests made after the booking deadline will be charged at £150+VAT per candidate. This must be paid in full and directly to the IPA at least 4 weeks prior to the new exam date. The deferral will not be confirmed until payment is received.

The deferral can only be allocated against the original booked name. Candidates may only defer their exam once and must commit to an alternate examination date at the point of request; this will be offered by the IPA. The selected exam date must fall within 12 months of the candidate's enrolment date.

A candidate must complete the Foundation Certificate qualification within 12 months of their enrolment date. If they wish to re-sit or defer their examination outside of these 12 months, they will be treated as a new booking and must pay the full qualification fees again.

Candidates may not defer from an exam for a second time, instead they will be treated as a new booking and must pay the full qualification fees again.

2.8 Examination Re-Sit

If a candidate fails their Foundation Certificate examination, they may re-sit at a future exam date.

Any re-sit requests will be charged at £150+VAT per candidate. This must be paid in full and directly to the IPA at least 4 weeks prior to the new exam date. The re-sit will not be confirmed until payment is received.

Candidates may only re-sit their exam once and must commit to an alternate examination date at the point of request; this will be offered by the IPA. The selected exam date must fall within 6 months of the candidate's failed exam date.

Candidates may not re-sit the exam for a second time; instead, they will be treated as a new booking and must pay the full qualification fees again.

2.9 Extenuating Circumstances

To qualify for a deferral free of charge on the grounds of extenuating circumstances, candidates must supply reasonable extenuating circumstances alongside proof/notice of absence from work, by email, to the IPA. This must be validated by the candidate's HR/manager by email. No calls will be accepted.

Extenuating circumstances will be dealt on a case-by-case basis at the discretion of the IPA. Any extenuating circumstances or deferral requests made due to annual leave or work commitments known or not known at the point of booking will not be accepted as reasonable reason for deferral at no charge under any circumstances.

If not provided prior to the examination, candidates should endeavour to inform the IPA on the day of the examination as soon as they are able.

In extreme circumstances of illness or injury if the candidate cannot sit the exam date offered by the IPA, they may defer their place to the following year. If the deferred candidate, does not sit their examination the following year the place will be lost and will lose 100% of the fee paid. No name changes can be applied to this place.

3. Other

3.1 Grades and Grade Publishing

Grades are released to candidates by email by the IPA.

All IPA qualifications go through a rigorous double marking process by independent markers. The IPA does not provide a breakdown of grades across our qualifications and courses, candidates will only be provided with their grade boundary. The IPA will not, under any circumstances, re-mark any paper. Grades will not change once released by the IPA.

Original papers are not available for candidates to request after the exam.

3.1.2 Fail Report

Upon request, the IPA can release a report with marker's comments to candidates who have failed their exam.

This feedback is written at a university level standard and should be used by the candidate to improve their paper should they re-sit.

The IPA will not ask for more feedback than is initially given. If, however, a delegate has any questions about feedback, they should contact the qualification's IPA contact.

3.2 Shredding and Archiving

Papers from online IPA examinations will be archived for a maximum of 2 years. Unless requested by a candidate they will be deleted/shredded following this date. Original papers are not available for candidates to request after the exam.

3.4 Qualification Mailing List

The IPA releases all information regarding the online learning and exam via email. By making a booking for an IPA qualification, the candidate agrees to be added to the mailing list for communication regarding the qualification and exam and will not unsubscribe.

It is the candidate and their agency/company's responsibility to ensure that the candidate is aware they have been booked onto the qualification and that they receive updates from the IPA regarding their qualification and exam. The IPA accepts no responsibility should any communication regarding their qualification or exam end up in the candidate's spam/junk/clutter folders.

Should a candidate unsubscribe from our mailing list, they understand that they will miss communication regarding their exam date, time, location, final grade, digital certificate of completion and any invites to relevant industry events.
